

NATIONAL SUMMIT ON PRIMARY CARE EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS
SPEAKER BIO

Christopher Williams, MPA

Chris joined the Community Health Care Association of New York State (CHCANYS) in May 2006 as a New York State Program Coordinator based in our Albany office. He is responsible for working with CHCANYS members throughout New York State to ensure that members are educated in Emergency Preparedness and that they are well-equipped to take ownership of their own Emergency Preparedness programs and relationships. Chris earned his Bachelors Degree in Philosophy from the University of Rochester, and his Master of Public Administration from Walden University. He has served in the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary since 2003, where he is currently a Staff Officer and Boat Crewman.
